MEMBERSHIP

12. The memberships of the club consist of Full Time and Off Peak (and such other categories of membership as the proprietor may decide).
13. Every candidate for membership must be 17 years of age or over, unless accompanied by a person above this age.
14. Partner / Joint membership is available.
15. Junior membership is available to persons aged 12 to 16 years. Child membership is available to children aged 5 to 11 years. (Both on the proviso that the junior or child are legally adopted or in the care of a dedicated guardian who is also a fee paying member of the club). All children under the age of 5 are entitled to use the club free of charge. On all visits to the club a Child or Junior member is the responsibility of and must be accompanied at all times in all areas of the club by a fee paying adult member (exception to this rule would be the U16 gymnasium timings or within classes for the purpose).
16. Upon joining a "Head Member" shall be nominated to act on behalf of the membership and shall have the power to bind the other members on that membership. The "Head member" shall always be the member paying the subscription fee. Therefore any change in membership category may result in a new "Head member" being nominated.
17. The nominated head member must ensure that they educate the other members on their membership of the rules and byelaws of the club. More copies of these rules and byelaws can be obtained from the club reception or from our website. The head member will be responsible for the actions of all other members on his or hers membership.
18. All memberships of the club with exception to the junior and child memberships, allow members to use all facilities of the club subject to facility charges where relevant. The proprietor reserves the right to refuse admission and/or suspend and/or expel any member forthwith if the member uses parts of the club beyond the entitlement of his or her membership category.
19. Members should take note of when their membership allows them to use the club and may not use any of the clubs facilities after the time specified, unless it is for a social function or class organised by the club for which they have booked and paid in advance. Members making use of the Pool Hall facilities or Gymnasium 30 minutes after their membership entitlement has ended will be charged a fee to upgrade their membership category for that session of use.
20. All adult members are allowed to sponsor two individuals only for the voucher/entries scheme.
21. Entries purchased are valid until used but are not transferable and non-refundable.
22. Entries do not allow access to land based exercise classes, nor do they allow the right to bring in additional guest.

APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP

23. Applications for membership must be on the forms provided for that purpose and must be legible. Some scheme memberships can only be applied for via an on-line portal.
24. Candidates may be subject to an interview prior to a membership being taken.
25. Acceptance for membership is at the sole discretion of the proprietor who need give no reasons for refusing an application for membership.
26. When the joining fee of an applicant has been paid and the proprietor has accepted his or her application for membership and he or she is a member of the club and is entitled to all of the privileges of the membership (once paid for) and shall be bound by the club rules.
27. Once your application has been processed each member will be required to pose for a photograph, which will be stored on our database together with your personal data. This photograph will be used for reference purposes each time you make use of the club. You may be asked to refresh your picture as and when necessary. Any person who refuses to have their picture taken may have their membership terminated.
28. Each member of the club will be issued with a membership card and/or key which shall remain the property of the proprietor and which in so far as practicable a member should carry this card/key at all times whilst on the clubs premises. If requested to do so by an authorised official of the club a member shall produce his or her membership card. Each member of the club will be required to check in with their card/key on the main gates located at reception upon the arrival of the club. Any members who have forgot their membership card must notify a member of staff before entering through the gate in reception where a temporary card will be issued for that days use. A fee will be charged for the rental of the borrowed card and the card must be returned on exiting the club. The club reserves the right to levy an admission charge for the issue to a member of a replacement card. Upon termination of the membership the membership card and/or key must on demand be returned to the proprietor.
29. Any member found giving their membership card to another person whom is not a member or found giving a membership card which would allow a user of the club with a lower category membership to your own use of an activity or area not covered in their membership and this person makes use of the club or makes use of areas of the club which is not permitted on their own membership, both yourself and the person making the offence will be charged a fee for the difference in membership together with an administration cost of £20.00, and both parties could be expelled from the club or stopped from using the club as a guest.

WYE LEISURE

Herefordshire's Premier Health & Leisure Club

30. Membership is not transferable.

MEMBERSHIP FEE AND TARIFFS

31. Upon registration as a member a joining fee is payable to the proprietor, which shall in no circumstances be refundable. If a member ceases membership (for whatever reason) and then re-joins he or she will be liable to pay the prevailing joining fee upon re-joining.
32. In addition to the joining fee a subscription fee shall be payable by or on behalf of each member of the club. Failure to pay the subscription fee will result in the use of the facilities and any privileges being removed and/or entrance to the club being denied.
33. The amount of the joining fees and subscription fees shall be at the absolute discretion of the proprietor and may vary from time to time. The proprietor of any such variations will give notice. Joining fees and membership fees are not refundable, however if deemed appropriate and if authorised by Wye Leisure directors, a refund for any remaining, unused membership may be refunded but an administration fee will be deducted. This fee will be 5% off the refund value or a minimum of £5.00.
34. The proprietor reserves the right to: (a) charge different fees for different categories of membership. (b) Vary the fee payable in respect of each category of membership.
35. The subscription fee shall be paid in full in advance for a twelve month duration (Annual Membership) or by quarterly payments (Quarterly Membership) of which we offer the choice of a direct debit facility or monthly payments (Monthly Membership) in the form of direct debit payments only.
36. If paying for your subscription by any means other than Direct Debit, notification of your subscription renewal will be sent to the address given or emailed to an address as stated on joining. Twenty eight days after your subscription became due, your membership will be blocked and payment must be made to the club before your next visit. We ask that payment be made immediately after receiving the reminder letter or email and would remind all members opting to pay by any other means other than Direct Debit that the club will not be held responsible for any subscription reminders that fail to be delivered and that duplicate reminder letters / email will not be issued. The club may notify you that your membership is due whilst at the premises or over the telephone. In this instance the subscription fee should be paid either whilst using the club or as soon as possible after leaving / or arriving at the premises by either sending a cheque to the club, calling the club to make a payment over the telephone, using our online payment facility, by transferring the funds by bank transfer or making a payment whilst at the premises. Payments for subscriptions will always be back-dated to the original renewal date.
37. Members who know that they will not be able to make payment by the 28th day after their due date (Members who will be away on holiday etc) may arrange with officials of the club in writing before their due date, of their circumstances and pay on their return. Once payment has been received the payment will be backdated to the original due date. This option is offered only by discretion of the proprietor. In such circumstances a reason for refusing this option may not be given.
38. If payment is not made by the due date, and you or any member associated with your membership tries to makes use of the club, they will be asked to make payment immediately or entry to the club will be refused.
39. If payment for subscriptions has not been made fourteen days after the date due, your membership will be frozen. The proprietor reserves the right to levy in respect of each person to be re-instated an administration charge.
40. If payment for subscriptions has not been made twenty-eight days after the date due, your membership will be lapsed. Any member's details that have been lapsed and this member wishes to re-join will be made to re-apply to the club and will be subject to another joining fee.
41. In the event of the failure of any payment by a member, by variable Direct Debit, by any unpaid cheque, credit or debit card payment being returned or by any other un-paid return, the proprietor reserves the right to levy in respect of each such failure an administration charge.
42. Tariff charges are payable in respect of the use of certain facilities at the club by members. Details of such tariffs are available from reception. The proprietor reserves the right to alter such charges from time to time.

CREDIT SYSTEM & PAYMENT OF GOODS TAKEN

43. Members of the club are able to add money to a credit facility as long as the membership category taken out allows for this facility. Any member adding any money to this credit facility should note that the funds will automatically be governed and controlled by the clubs "Credit Bonus Scheme" terms and condition which are in addition to these rules and byelaws. A copy of the terms and conditions can be obtained from the club reception or can be downloaded from our website.
44. Membership terminations are dealt with as detailed within these rules and byelaws. Any member terminating their membership whom has accrued credit on their account and wishes to receive a refund of this credit must specify their intentions of this in writing in addition to giving instructions to terminate any membership as the club will not automatically refund any remaining credit held. Details of credit refunds can be found with the Credit Bonus Scheme terms and conditions.
45. Any member or guest may purchase goods from the proprietor or any other facility or organisation selling items on behalf of the proprietor, within the club grounds or at any organised event. These items must be paid for on exiting the club or as set out by the proprietor. If in the instance payment can not be made and with the agreement of the duty manager, members and guests may be allowed to exit the club or event after completing and signing a "Notice of Open Sale" form and agree in full to the payment rules as set out within this form. Any member refusing to complete this form in the eyes of the proprietor will still be considered to be bound by these rules and will be dealt with as detailed. A copy of these addition rules can be obtained from the club reception and will be issued on the day the sale can not be completed.

CHANGE OF MEMBERSHIP CATEGORY

46. If a member on a lower category than of the Full Time membership requires to use the facilities of the club in the hours that of which their membership does not allow, they may use the facilities in the form of a membership upgrade, for this they will be subject to an admission charge payable on entering the club.
47. A member may upgrade their membership category at any time subject to the terms and conditions of that category and provided that the membership in question is available for purchase from the club. In the event of such an upgrade the proprietor reserves the right to levy in respect of each member an administration charge.
48. The original cost of the joining fee paid in order to become a member shall be credited towards the joining fee of the new membership category. The proprietor reserves the right to charge any difference at this time between the initial joining fee paid and the current joining fee for the membership in question.
49. A member may change their membership type from a single to joint membership at any time as long as the additional membership is available for purchase from the club. In the event of such an upgrade the original cost of the single joining fee paid in order to become a single member shall be credited towards the joining fee of the new joint membership category. The proprietor reserves the right to charge any difference at this time between the initial single joining fee paid and the current joint joining fee for the membership in question.

- a. Additional persons being added to current memberships at the club would normally be added on the next renewal date. Club management will need to be notified at this time so that a membership price can be obtained for the interim period.
50. The proprietor will automatically upgrade child and junior memberships to the appropriate membership tariff upon the relevant birthday.
51. Upon this time, the proprietor reserves the right to levy in respect of the upgrade an administration charge.
52. In the event that a partner member no longer wishes to remain as a partner member, the individual and the partner may become two single individual members by notifying the club in writing and by commencing the payment of two single individual membership subscriptions fees, where appropriate in the month immediately following the notice to the club. The original cost of the joining fee paid in order to become a partner member may be applied towards the current cost of the joining fee for the relevant class of individual membership. Upon this time the proprietor reserves the right to levy in respect of each member an administration charge.

VISITORS AND GUESTS

53. Any member of the club aged 17 years or over may bring up to two guests to the club at any one time. Each guest must complete the guest registration form which the member must verify as correct and be accompanied at all times by the member who has brought the guest/guests to the club who shall be responsible for his or hers conduct.
54. The proprietor reserves the right to charge each guest a guest fee for entry to the club in addition to the normal tariffs payable for the use of the clubs facilities.
55. The club rules apply equally to members and their guests.
